/HARD KNOCKS./

Jimmy Jump is employed in an office where there are many other employees, but lacking the courage to ask for a raise, he feels he is not in a position to propose to the employers daughter who is in love with him. She gives a birthday party to which Jimmy appears in a riding suit. Of course he is entirely out of place and many laughable scenes follow at the party. His rival, also an employee of the firm departs from the party to get a forgotten birthday gift. Jimmy, suspicious, follows him and finds the rival robbing the safe. He telephones to the boss's home and the party in force rushes to the office where the rival is captured red-handed and Jimmy of course wins out with the girl.
